WARSAW REPORTED SAFE; RUSSIAN CAPITAL CLAIMS SERIOUS GERMAN DEFEAT

PETROGRAD, DEC. 23.—A GREAT BATTLE IS RAGING TODAY ALONG THE PILICA RIVER, BETWEEN LODZ AND OPOCZNO.

THERE IS A LULL ALONG THE BZURA RIVER, WHERE GREAT ACTIVITY PREVAILED FOR SOME TIME. ON THE WESTERN SIDE THE GERMANS ARE AWAITING RE-ENFORCEMENTS. THE KAISER'S DEFEAT ALONG THE BZURA IS DECLARED TO HAVE BEEN MUCH GREATER THAN AT FIRST REPORTED. THE ENEMY SUSTAINED FEARFUL LOSSES IN THIS BATTLE.

PETROGRAD, DEC. 23.—IT IS OFFICIALLY CLAIMED THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE INVADING EAST PRUSSIA FROM THE EAST AND SOUTH, AFTER HAVING DRIVEN THE GERMANS BACK ACROSS THE BZURA, AND THAT THE LATTER WERE REPULSED AT THE PILICA RIVER WHEN THEY ATTEMPTED TO ADVANCE FROM LODZ. WARSAW IS SAFE.

IN EASTERN GALICIA AND IN SOUTHERN POLAND WE HAVE BROKEN THE AUSTROGERMAN OFFENSIVE. THE GERMANS ARE SACRIFICING TENS OF THOUSANDS OF MEN MERELY FOR TEMPORARY GAIN. WE SACRIFICE NONE EXCEPT FOR PERMANENT GAINS.

WILHELM BACK ON FIRING LINE.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 23.—A dispatch received here states that the kaiser arrived at Cologne Tuesday with his entire staff, en route to the western front.

PREPARING TO BEGIN DREDGING ANOTHER CHANNEL IN HALIFAX

COMMUNICATION FROM WAR DEPARTMENT ASKS FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING CONSTRUCTION OF 100-FOOT DOCK.

From the Jacksonville office of Major W. B. Ladue, United States engineer, war department, the following letter, with reference to a proposed new channel in the Halifax river, note of which was made in this paper some time ago, was received by the Daily News, Wednesday:

"There has been received at this office an application from McCoy Bros. in behalf of a number of the citizens of Daytona requesting permission to dredge a channel from Beach street across the foot of Magnolia avenue to the Gulf channel of the Halifax river, said channel to be 60 feet wide and six feet deep at mean low water, and the material excavated from the channel to be deposited on the side of the proposed channel, but the construction of this dock is contemplated."

In his letter Major Ladue also asked if there is any objection to the proposed work or if any objection has been manifested in the community.

Application was made, at the last regular meeting of Daytona city council on December 14th by twenty odd citizens for a permit to dredge such a channel as is above described and to have constructed a dock at the foot of Magnolia avenue. The privilege sought was granted.

Ruben Goethe, of Miami, visited his friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Milton in this city between trains, Tuesday, stopping over on his way to St. Augustine and Jacksonville.

ANOTHER YOUNG LADY ENTERS THE CONTEST

MISS MABEL ELLSWORTH, OF ORMOND, STARTS OFF WITH A HEAVY VOTE—OTHERS ARE GAINING.

The standing of the contestants in the Gazette-News Panama-Pacific Exposition contest is taking on new life, especially since Monday, when the vote given below was counted. Much of the added interest is due to the fact that the merchants who are giving votes away with cash purchases are being patronized liberally by holiday shoppers, and as a result many of the young ladies will be found to have made astonishing gains when the next count is checked up.

Miss Mabel Ellsworth, an Ormond recruit, whose name appears for the first time today, sent in a three-year subscription for which she is credited with 399,000 votes. A letter received last night from Miss Ellsworth contained checks to cover several new subscribers, which is convincing proof that this paper will have something sensational to "spring" next week of the work now being accomplished by Miss Ellsworth.

The fact should not be lost sight of that votes given for subscribers to the Gazette-News count very fast, and

FINE DISPLAY BY LOCAL MERCHANTS

PRICES CHARGED FOR GOODS HERE NOT IN EXCESS OF WHAT IS ASKED FOR SAME ARTICLES IN JACKSONVILLE.

A finer display of holiday goods than is being shown this season by local merchants would be hard to find. There is scarcely a window along the business streets that is not artistically exhibiting Christmas goods, which appeal very strongly to the passer-by. This fact has gone a long way toward influencing the public to spend their Christmas allowance at home, where prices are from 10 to 20 per cent lower than in Jacksonville.

A Daytona citizen had occasion to go up to Jacksonville the other day and thought it a good time to make his Christmas purchases while in the metropolis. He had read of the slaughter of prices in the newspapers and really expected to bring back an armful of presents for a "song." In telling of his experience he said: "Believe me, I looked that town over and failed to find anything that I wanted marked down one cent lower than is charged for it here in Daytona."

"As a matter of fact," said he, "I was sadly disappointed with the whole business, and returned home without having spent a cent outside of my actual expenses."

The above is only one of many similar experiences that have come to the attention of the Daily News within the past few days. In every instance it has been proven conclusively that contrary to the belief that out-of-town merchants can sell for less money than the local merchant, the results have shown considerable advance in price over that charged here for the same article.

Miss Ianthie Bond is here to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bond, and other members of the family at their home on Orange avenue. Miss Bond is teaching in the public school at Ft. Myers.

AUSTIN HOTEL OPENED WITH DINNER TUESDAY

The Austin hotel, under the management of Messrs. J. J. Wegman and H. Cattaneo, opened for the season with dinner Tuesday evening, and a number of guests were registered for the opening meal. This is the first season in Daytona for the new proprietors of The Austin, and they are enthusiastic over the beauties of the city, and look forward to a big season.

It is the plans of Messrs. Wegman and Cattaneo to conduct The Austin on a high plane, and if the opening meal is an example of the cuisine they will undoubtedly live up to their expectations.

MAKES TRIP FROM DETROIT TO DAYTONA

W. J. Brewster, of Detroit, Mich., is at Daytona Beach for a six weeks' sojourn, having covered the entire distance of 1,400 miles in his Ford automobile. This is the second trip Mr. Brewster has made from Michigan to Florida in the same car.

Mrs. Brewster came by rail and joined Mr. Brewster on his arrival here. Mr. Brewster is boasting his oil and Briston tires.

THE WEATHER.

For Florida: Cloudy tonight and Thursday, and probably rain. Moderate north to east winds.

Christmas shoppers have been making good use of the fine weather that has prevailed this week.

Hankins says:

We will give 200,000 votes with each $5.00 books for the next few days of the contest.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Dec. 22.—G. Fred Beed died rather suddenly at his home in San Diego, Cal., on December 9th. Mr.
Beed was a brother-in-law of Leonard Knox, and came here in 1880, associating himself with Mr. Knox in the Mound Grove property. He spent about six years here at that time, and was well known by the older residents of Ormond. He is survived by a widow and four children.

On Thursday, December 17th, an earnest body of Christian workers held an all-day educational rally in Ormond Union church. The meeting was under the auspices of the Volusia County Sunday School association, of which E. H. Shoemaker of Daytona is president. Addresses of welcome were made by Mayor W. F.

Colby and J. G. Daub, superintendent of the Ormond Sunday school, to which Rev. Mr. Elder of Daytona responded in a felicitous manner. Devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. John M. Richmond of Ormond.
The principal speakers of the day were Mrs. Drew of Daytona, on "Primary Work;" the Rev. R. C. Weidner, state secretary, on "State and County Sunday School Organizations." Both addresses were most uplifting and inspiring, as were also the blackboard illustrations of Prof. E. Richmond
of Philadelphia. Mrs. H. W. Cushing of Daytona Beach gave a fine report of the state convention held at Tampa, and Mrs. Mason gave another good report on the Chicago convention.

In the afternoon the pupils of the public schools came in a body and gave most appreciative and responsive attention to Prof. Richmond's picture lessons. The day was full of good things, both instructive and inspiring, and the regret was expressed that but one day of conference had been planned for at this time.

Isaac H. Sawyer, with Mrs. Sawyer and their son John, will be in Ormond for the holidays and will occupy their cottage on New Britain avenue.

Mrs. R. R. Kimball is in Washington, D. C., for a few weeks' stay, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Crane.

John A. Reilly, who was called to Boston some four weeks ago on account of the illness of his sister, Miss Mary J. Reilly, returned on Thursday of last week, his sister having much improved.

Theodore Fluhart, of Dayton, O., is again in Ormond for the winter season, and is now getting his house in readiness for Mrs. Fluhart, who is expected later on.

The regular meeting of the Village
Improvement association was held on Friday of last week, Miss Emma Weatherbee, second vice president, in the chair. Among other business the club discussed the matter of a house-to-house canvass for statistics regarding the registration of births and deaths of little children, as Florida has no law covering this, and the government hopes by this means to be more fully able to cope with the prevention of infantile diseases by regulating food diet, the sanitary conditions, etc.

The rain came down in torrents, and there were only a fortunate few present to listen to the beautiful Christmas paper given by Mrs. Jno. G. Daub, who had the program in charge. Mrs.
Daub explained the meaning of Christmas, giving several legends relating to the subject, the origin of the Christmas tree and the Christmas stocking as well, following this with many beautiful thoughts on the Christmas spirit, and closing with an ardent appeal for a community Christmas tree
next year, with carols sung by children going about to the houses of the shut-ins, gifts for everybody and the true Christmas spirit. Mrs. M. E.
Shafer favored those present with a piano selection. Refreshments were served, the hostesses for the day being Mrs. J. R. Clements, Mrs. Carrie D. Simrall and Miss Alice McNary.
Mrs. Ernest Lowe and Miss Mary Simrall assisting in the serving.

REPORT OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Are property rights put above human rights by the courts in this country? Is labor before the law treated as a commodity? Does the law and do the courts lose sight of the fact that labor cannot be separated from men, women and children? Is it a fact that "there is no justice in our courts for the poor man?"

These are a few of the interesting questions discussed in the first annual report of the Commission on Industrial Relations. The report recently issued, says:

"An imposing array of matter has been submitted tending to prove that the right to the writ of habeas corpus has often been denied; that the freedom of the press and of speech has been restrained and at times prohibited; and that the courts have sat idle while armed forces stripped citizens of constitutional guarantees that are presumed to be inalienable.

"Another distinct cause of bitterness is the conviction that property creates inability to enforce undisputed rights.

"Not only do the processes of the courts, with frequent postponements, long delays, intricate technicalities, and numerous appeals, make it impossible for the poor man to pursue his rights, but it is claimed that thousands of workers are of necessity ignorant of the law and unable to hire a lawyer, or that the amounts out of which they are awarded are often too small to pay the expense of a suit.

"Many employers are equally insistent that the law, the police and the courts have ceased to give them the proper measure of protection in their property interests.

"The law, they say, is being rapidly shaped to serve the selfish interests of the working class; the police, under the alleged domination of the unions, refuse to arrest strikers even when they openly commit crimes and the courts, moreover, are becoming more and more subservient to the workers.

Giddy Amusement.

A young working class mother was overheard proposing fresh entertainment to a family party consisting of three or four children and a grown-up sister. "Come on," she said, "and I'll take you to see your grandma's grave." "I don't see much in that," dissented her sister. "Well," replied the mother, thoughtfully, "I'd rather see a grave than a wedding. Do you know that's the end of it?"—Manchester Guardian.

Considering the Ant.

A sapper of effectiveness is the habit of thinking ourselves busy, says the Nevada Post. Its confusion of thought is a certain preventive of accomplishment. The ant which frantically runs up a grass stem and then runs down again is doubtless racking his nervous system with the idea that he is busy, but he is gathering no food for the colony.

A Luscious Criticism.

"Her criticisms," said Mrs. Twickimbury, "were extremely succulent."—Christian Register.

is for Mrs. J. H. Graham, will be driven through by Mr. Wingate, who will likely be accompanied by L. B. Forte, of the San Juan Garage company, and by Mr. Donnelly. They should arrive some time this afternoon or evening.

After a delightful week here, Mr. and Mrs. John Aspinwall, of Newburg, N. Y., sailed Wednesday morning aboard their yacht, the "Spark," for Miami. They may stop for a short time at Eau Gallie, where they have a place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Green left with the little yacht "Snapshot," Wednesday, for Palm Beach, where they will remain some time. But for the fact that their plans were made before they reached Daytona, they might have remained here all winter, so well pleased were they with the local surroundings.

"GIVE HIM SOMETHING USEFUL"

At this time of year the stores are crowded with "things to sell." Thousands of ingenious minds have schemed for months to provide countless articles, most of them really valueless, to "get the money." Millions of people are buying gifts. It's always hard to know what to buy—and the result is that enormous sums are wasted every Christmas on worthless "presents."
Why not make up your mind to give only useful things this year? You'll find these in great variety at our store. In fact, you'll find only useful gifts, reasonable and desirable things that every man and boy wants, and will be pleased to get.

States. In this connection a leaf from the book of the greatest of maritime powers should prove instructive. In England the business of developing sailors long ago was reduced to a scientific basis. The Nautical College Central Technical school was established in Liverpool in 1892, with the object of giving efficient training to apprentices and officers who wish to obtain board of trade certificates as mariners and to afford to the members of the mercantile marine means of obtaining complete and scientific training as deck officers and marine engineers. Since its establishment 3,000 members of the mercantile marine have taken courses, of whom more than 2,600 have obtained the board of trade certificates.

The establishment of such schools
at the chief ports of the United States is being urged to supplement our existing nautical school. The cost of their maintenance would be highly defrayed by the tuition fees and with a very little help from the various municipalities such schools could be established in a great number of our Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf towns, as well as in cities on the great lakes.

Man Who Struck Oil First.
How many Americans recall the name of Edwin L. Drake? He was said to have been a conductor on the New Haven railroad 55 years ago.
Then he was employed at Oil Creek,
Pa., to drill a well for oil, and on August 27, 1859, his work was done and his well went down in history as the first ever drilled for oil in the United States.—Lentle's.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Bible school classes of the First Baptist church will hold their exercises on Friday evening in the auditorium. A very interesting and entertaining program will be given by the members of the various classes of the school. The fact that the program will be given largely by the children will make it the more interesting to all. An evening of music, recitation and song. At the conclusion of the children's part Mrs. Right-maire will tell the story of "The Other Sheep."

DAYTONA BEACH.

DAYTONA BEACH, Dec. 23.—The picaninies around the street peddling Christmas greens and the organ grinder and monkey, tagged by a long string of children reminds us that this is Christmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Johnson received news Sunday by long distance telephone of the safe arrival that morning of a nine-pound boy at the home of their son, Ernest L. Johnson, and wife, in Kissimmee. The grandparents are being congratulated on their first grandchild.

Cochrane Keating came over from Gainesville, where he is attending the State University, to spend the holidays at home. Cochrane, who graduated with honors from the Seabreeze high school last term, is very enthusiastic over the work at the university and speaks in the highest terms of the faculty.

Miss Helen Keating and Eunice Van Valzah returned Saturday afternoon from St. Augustine, where they have been at the convent, for their Christmas vacation at home.

Chas. S. Weaver, of Thompson, Ct., is a recent arrival at the White House.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Cannon and little son, will arrive next week from Wilmington, Del., to spend the holidays in Florida. They will visit Mr. Cannon's brother and other relatives in Gainesville, reaching there the day before Christmas, and after a few days come over to the beach to spend the remainder of Mr. Cannon's vacation with Mrs. Cannon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman, and family, at the Freeman cottage on Peninsula drive. Mrs. Cannon, who was Miss Etta Freeman, has scores of girlhood friends who will give her a cordial welcome.

Mrs. Edward Curtis and two bright youngsters are eagerly expected at the J. H. Haight home on Peninsula drive next week to spend some time with Mrs. Curtis' parents. Mr. Curtis, who is in business in Peekskill, N. Y., may not be able to get away to come this season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Groat and children, who last year occupied Dr. Bogart's cottage on North Atlantic avenue, are this season domiciled in one of the Phillips' cottages on Hollywood avenue. Mr. Groat and family have just returned from a motor trip to Miami, which they greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Hall, who is a very diligent fisherman, made a big haul one day last week by bringing in a 27-pound bass, which he caught at the ocean pier. He had the fish photographer in support of the fish stories he was writing back to his sport loving friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Clark, of Jacksonville, will be here to spend a part of the holidays with Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman, arriving the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Alice Clark and daughter, of Sandwich, Ill., are occupying the Atlantic Beach cottage for the season. This is their sixth winter in Daytona Beach, which proves without saying that they are well satisfied with this section of the East Coast.

Mrs. Woolsey, Mrs. Emma Freeman's aunt, who makes her home with Mrs. Freeman, has been confined to her room for some time and to her bed part of the time. Mrs. Woolsey, who is better known as "Auntie," is 57 years old and for one of her age is remarkably ambitious to do for herself.

Seabreeze-Daytona Beach School Closed Friday

The public school closed Friday for two weeks. The third and fourth rooms had Christmas exercises. The children were instructed to bring ten cents' worth of pure candy and a ten-cent present. These were done up in packages and numbered and so each child received a present and a bag of candy, but each drew from some other package than his or her own. Recitations and songs preceded the distribution of presents.

At the Seabreeze Churches

The forenoon and afternoon services at the Tourist church and the Baptist Mission had good sized congregations, showing the increase in the tourist and winter resident element. Rev. E. R. Serl, of the Tourist church, took for his subject "A Vision in the Winter Rain; a Christmas Story." The story of the nativity was beautifully told and listened to with marked attention. Prof. C. L. Watkins had charge of the organ, and the congregational singing and music; also a vocal solo by Mr. Watkins, "The Christ," was well rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lott and two children arrived Friday and were at Seabreeze Lodge until Monday when they took possession of their new home on Halifax avenue, which Mr. Lott purchased last winter of Mrs. Florence Johnson and had remodeled during the summer. Now that he is here Mr. Lott will improve the yard and grounds.

Miss Margaret Farrell arrived Saturday from Philadelphia, Pa., to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Farrell, on North Halifax avenue. Miss Margaret, who is attending school at Overbrook, one of the suburbs of Philadelphia, was accompanied by Beatrice Dietrick, of Overbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Blalock, of Barnesville, Ga., who were with Miss Russell at Monticello, Tenn., last summer, will arrive soon to spend the winter with her at the Gilmore house.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Langworthy are enjoying the presence of Mrs. Langworthy's sister, Mrs. Taylor, who arrived Saturday afternoon from Pittsburgh, where she had been visiting with their brother. She will spend the winter with them.

Mrs. J. B. Abercrombie returned the later part of last week from a visit with Mrs. Stevens at Sanford.

C. A. Ballough, master stone mason, has the walls of a garage for Colonel T. E. Cordis up. The garage is being built of coquina rock, and as soon as the two shambling wooden buildings are removed from the grounds will show up well.

R. E. Waterson has had word from Chas. S. Corryell, of Toronto, Can., that he is shaping his plans to be with Mr. Waterson and family about the middle of January if possible. Mr. Corryell will be accompanied by A. Dodds, one of Toronto's leading attorneys.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sweet, of Visalia, Mich., have reserved rooms with Mrs. S. B. Gantz, on North Halifax avenue. They are regular winter visitors.

Varian Parker, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a grandson of Mrs. John Jones, of North Halifax avenue, is here for his health, spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen of Dover, Ill., cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Wells, on the corner of Earl and Peninsula drive, arrived the latter part of last week to spend the winter here.

C. A. Lund made a narrow escape from drowning last Saturday night at the ferry landing. He was giving assistance to Dave Barnhart in removing his bicycle from the boat when some heavy-weight stepped off, the boat gave a lurch and Mr. Lund fell overboard, taking the wheel along with him. The wheel was on top and Mr. Lund was pinned to the bottom of the river, unable to extricate himself, when Mr. Barnhart reached down, and luckily could grasp Mr. Lund's hand and so pulled him through the two wheels of the bicycle. Mr. Lund was very much exhausted when he was drawn out of the water and hardly able to stand. However, he was all right in a few hours, but is not longing for an opportunity to repeat the experience.

Mrs. H. W. Cushing of Ora street, attended the Sunday School convention at Ormond last Thursday and took part in the program by reading a full report of the Tampa Sunday School convention.

D. W. McDonald and son, A. W. McDonald, knights of the grip, came up from Miami this week to spend Christ-

The street gang, under C. L. Harvey's supervision, are grading down the sand dunes from Earl to Ora street along Ocean avenue. The street will be graded and shelled between these two intersections, which will connect south with the street already opened to the town limits, and greatly improve the beach property along the line.

Stewart, arrived Monday from Chicago, Ill., and joined his brother and family at the Stewart home, on the corner of Earl street and Atlantic avenue. Chas. A. Stewart and family will come in from Melbourne to be here in time for a family reunion at the home of H. F. Stewart on Christmas day.

The many friends of Mrs. G. W. Buckner will be glad to know that she is regaining her strength and is able to get around again. Her sister-in-law Mrs. S. W. Juday, of Indianapolis, Ind., is with her and to this fact she says she owes her improved health.

Mr. and Mrs. Curran, of Elmira, N. Y., arrived Wednesday and are located in the Darby cottage on the beach. They were here last winter.

The Swift cottage on North Atlantic avenue will be occupied this season again by F. L. McKeel and family, of Morgantown, W. Va., who have spent several seasons in the cottage.

Capt. C. P. Barnett of the 15th cavalry regiment, Texas, will join his wife and baby for the holidays at the Wakefield cottage on Oakridge boulevard.

SEABREEZE.

SEABREEZE, Dec. 23. — On Wednesday, Dec. 30, the qualified voters of the town of Seabreeze will have the opportunity to carry out the wishes of a majority of the property holders by casting their ballots in favor of a bond issue in the sum of $15,000 to install and operate a municipal water works system for domestic purposes and fire protection.

Those who have studied the growth of communities and towns cityward, realize that one of the greatest factors in the sale and development of property and the increase of its value is an efficient system of water works.

It is generally conceded that the bond issue will carry, in view of the great need in Seabreeze for such a system and the moderate bond required. But, overconfidence or indifference on the part of those who favor it may result in defeat. In any event, it is the duty of the electors to turn out and endorse the action of the council by a large majority. Will you do it?

A Word About Waste Paper—

Some of our boys and girls, and possibly some of the grown-ups, are very careless about scattering paper on the streets, and especially around the postoffice. Postmaster Graves is unusually ambitious and energetic in his efforts to keep a neat office and a neat appearance around the office. He is doing his part and more, and should have the loyal support of every boy and girl and man and woman in Seabreeze. It should be a matter of civic righteousness that we take care of all our own waste papers, and on account of others' carelessness, some of us do extend so far as to pick up papers we do not scatter. Last Saturday, some boy or boys, scattered short slips of paper all along the sidewalk from the postoffice to the intersection of Pal-

There is a receptacle at the postoffice for waste paper and there is no excuse for throwing papers around the office or on the streets. These bits of paper scattered as they were, gave to the postoffice and surroundings a most slovenly appearance and may have, and are, calculated to prejudice strangers to the town.

At the Princess Isenna

E. L. King and little daughter with her maid, arrived from Winona, Minn., and were at the Princess Isenna for a few days, awaiting the arrival of Mrs. King and baby boy and the opening of the Whitfield residence on North Halifax avenue, which they will occupy until their own magnificent winter home in the Bostwick addition, Daytona Beach, is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Mastick, New York city, are at the Princess to spend a few days. Mrs. R. A. Holden and Miss Eugenia Taintor and Ira S. Holden, of Cincinnati, O., are at the Princess for the week. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Campbell of St. Paul, Minn., last year's guests, are at the Princess for the season. Chas. H. Hayden and daughter and Mrs. R. E. Fenton will arrive next Monday.
